FATALLY INJURED

CLYDE MIDDLETON SUFFERS A BROKEN BACK THIS AFTERNOON.

WAS DRIVING IN SHED

Body Was Pinned Beneath the Building and Wagon — Is Taken to St. Francis Hospital.

Clyde Middleton, about 27 years old a teamster living on East First street, suffered a broken back this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when he attempted to drive into a coal shed in the rear of the Arnett Paint shop on North Buchanan street. He was pinned between the wagon and the shed and it was necessary to have the wagon backed out before his body could be removed.

Middleton was attended by Drs. Wallis, and later removed to St. Francis hospital, where it was found that his condition was serious. Middleton was conscious at the time they attended him.

According to A. D. Arnett, who was one of the first to reach Middleton at the time of the accident, the ground is slightly elevated at the entrance to the shed. For this reason it is thought that Middleton misjudged the elevation of the ground when he attempted to drive into the shed.

Middleton is a married man.

TO HELP RAISE FUND

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS VOTE TO LEVY TAX ON MEMBERS.

AMOUNT IS FOR $750,000

Will Be Used to Provide Comfort and Needs of the Men in the Drafted Army.

The Knights of Pythias at their fourth district convention, which met last night at Mound City, voted to levy an assessment of $1 on the members to assist in raising a $750,000 fund now being raised by this lodge to provide for the comfort and needs of the Knights of Pythian members who will serve in the national conscript army.

The fund will, the members say, help relieve the work of the Red Cross societies and the Y. M. C. A. It was also voted that the lodge dues for all Knights of Pythias members who serve in the army would be suspended during the war. At every cantonment there will be a competent lodge member to see that the wants of these soldiers will be carefully provided for, and that the men do not want for medical attention.

The Maryville delegation who attended the convention were: Mayor A. S. Robey, Mose Nusbaum, John Ritze and Ed Wolfert. Owing to sickness Charles Hyslop was unable to attend.

G. R. Davis of Nevada, grand chancellor of the Missouri Knights of Pythias, was present and delivered an address before the convention. Edwin Ettinger of St. Louis, grand keeper of the records was also present. They will attend another district meeting at Darlington, tonight.

Eight members from the lodges of Fairfax, Tarkio, Mound City and Watson were initiated. There were about one hundred delegates at the convention. One delegate is sent for every twenty-five members of the local lodges.

Mose Nusbaum, district deputy to the grand chancellor, reports that many former Maryville members, who now live at Mound City, were present and were glad to welcome the Maryville delegation. The roads, he said, were in good condition, and that the town of Maitland is all decorated for the Maitland fair, which is being held there this week.

Bryan Sells, The Soldier

An interesting letter was received yesterday from Bryan, known universally around Maryville as "Red" Sells, who has been stationed at Newport, R. I., for some months. He says that the division of the coast artillery in which he belongs had orders to leave last Friday for New York, preparatory to sailing for France. The general "atmosphere" of the letter is characteristic of its author. "Red" is literally bubbling over with patriotism and his attitude toward the kaiser is positively "pro-American."

What one may have thought when Bryan Sells left to join the army is a matter of conjecture but one thing is sure he has the right spirit and is deeply sincere in his loyalty to his country. Running throughout the letter is a deep, boyish, patriotic devotion to his duty.

Following are some extracts from the original manuscript. "We leave Newport Friday night and are going after the kaiser. The United States people always said that the Coast artillery did not fight, but we are going to show 'em what we can do. Before I come back to my old home which I never will forget I am going to walk in the streets of Berlin, Germany, and save the honor which our country has always had at her mast. Every one at home will not forget me as long as old Shep is running around. I am not dancing dogs anymore but a Ford Henry. When I get in Paris I'll turn her loose and put on the cutout and then watch her skin. You may not be able to read this writing but my pen just won't go the way I want it to. The other day we fell out for inspection and last muster and one private had a dirty gun and the Top Sergeant told him that he had neglected his Best Friend and for him to clean her up."

After describing very vividly the coast artillery guns he says—"I am the guy what says fire and I either push a button or pull a string, and then look out Fritz, for away she goes to her home, wherever it may be." In closing he says, "I bid you one and all goodbye, good luck and God bless you."

The painter who aspires to be a decorator, of course, is required to keep himself in touch with the latest effects in the art. We are led by experience to believe that we are "delivering the goods," otherwise our business would not be as good. In fact, our "home" business keeps us in Nodaway County, and thus we retain ourselves on a plane with the non-rolling stone, gathering the "moss" while the "pebbles" bounce by on a vain search for new fields.

You don't have to coax that appetite.

You don't have to wonder what is the matter with your digestion and why your meals don't agree with you. You don't have to do this if you give your appetite just what your system needs. To eat the things you really need, not too much nor too little and to have them really prepared just right is the main thing to keep your system in running order. If you haven't tried this plan do so at once. Every day of waiting is a day wasted before you feel right.

Our eating service gives you the things you want like you want them and when you want them. Its different from eating just what may be placed before you. Here you order what you want and get it.

Fair Week Visitors

Will find here a place to eat where they will have pleasant surroundings, good service, careful and prompt attention. We now have one of the best chefs in this part of the country. He knows how to cook things so they are right. Take pies for example. These are real pies which he bakes. You should investigate them whether you want a piece of pie or a whole pie.

In addition to our regular help we are having two expert waiters sent from Omaha. Fair week visitors can depend on us for prompt service.

EASIER ON MARRIED MEN

Where the Wife Would Have to Seek Work Exemption Will Be Granted.

Washington, Aug. 28.—Married men with actually dependent wives and children will not be drafted into the new national army, Provost Marshal General Crowder ruled.

Acting upon suggestion of President Wilson for ameliorating the lot of certain families, General Crowder held that boards ought not to force a wife to go to work for herself and children where the soldier's pay or his pay plus relatives contributions did not suffice to meet the family needs.

President Wilson wrote that such hardships should be avoided as far as possible. General Crowder concurred, but reiterated that there ought not to be exemption in cases, for instance where the wife is wealthy, or where her relatives are willing to take over the task of supporting her.

SHORT ON $1 AND $2 BILLS.

And This Is True of the Rich as Well as the Poor Man.

Washington, Aug. 28.—A shortage of $1 and $2 bills, acute in many sections, exists throughout the country. Banks, looking to the treasury for relief, are unable to have their full demands satisfied because of the low reserves of these denominations in the vaults. The bureau of engraving and printing, working at top speed on Liberty bonds, has been unable to meet the demand.

WHAT WE FIGHT.

"The war was begun by the military masters of Germany, who proved to be also the masters of Austria-Hungary. These men have never regarded nations as peoples, men, women, and children of like blood and frame as themselves, for whom governments existed and in whom governments had their life. They have regarded them merely as serviceable organizations which they could by force or intrigue bend or corrupt to their own purpose. They have regarded the smaller States, in particular, and the peoples who could be overwhelmed by force, as their natural tools and instruments of domination. Their purpose has long been avowed. * *

"If they succeed they are safe as Germany and the world are undone; if they fail, Germany is saved and the world will be at peace. If they succeed, America will fall within the menace. We and all the rest of the world must remain armed, as they will remain, and must make ready for the next step in their aggression; if they fail, the world may unite for peace, and Germany may be of the union."—Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States.
